

If you wish to invite your children (under 21 years old) or spouse, referred to as “dependents,” to live with you in the U.S., they will need to apply for F-2 immigration status.

How can I invite my husband, wife, or children to come stay with me in the U.S.?

Here's a brief explanation of the process:

1. Turn in this application requesting to add your F-2 dependent to your SEVIS record. Please be prepared to demonstrate adequate financial support.
2. You will receive an updated F-1 student I-20 and new F-2 dependent I-20(s) from CGE. Allow 1-2 weeks for processing.
3. Send the new original F-2 dependent I-20, along with the necessary documents (listed below) to your dependent.
4. Your dependent will take the I-20 and necessary documents to apply for an F-2 visa at an embassy or consulate abroad.
5. After your dependent receives the F-2 visa, he or she can enter the US using the I-20, passport, and F-2 visa. Please bring in all dependent documents to CGE for copying after your dependents have entered the United States.

F-2 Visa Application Process & Necessary Documents

Please refer to instructions on the web site of your embassy or consulate (<http://travel.state.gov>) for a complete list of required documents.

However, we suggest that your dependents have the following documents in hand.

- Original signed F-2 dependent I-20 issued by your CGE Advisor
- A personal letter of invitation from you to the dependent
- Proof of marriage and/or child's birth
- A photocopy of your F-1 student I-20
- Original copies of your (F-1) funding documents
- A letter from your department stating your student status and details of your assistantship, if applicable
- Your FSU transcripts (available from the FSU Registrar's office)
- Certification of Enrollment (available from the FSU Registrar's office)

SPECIAL NOTE FOR DEPENDENTS CURRENTLY IN THE U.S.

If your dependent is currently in the U.S. under a different visa status, he or she will need to apply directly to USCIS for a change of immigration status. The F-2 dependent I-20 does not grant F-2 status without approval by USCIS. If you need information on this process, please make an appointment with your F-1 Advisor at CGE.

F-2 Dependents must have:

- An F-2 dependent I-20
- An F-2 Visa or Change of Status approval letter (I-797 notice)
- An I-94 with F-2 D/S notation
- An I-20 signed for travel when exiting and re-entering the U.S.
- Valid F-2 visa to re-enter the U.S.

F-2 Dependents may:

- Attend school (grades K-12 only)
- Participate in other "avocational or recreational" study (exp. cooking, art, English lessons)
- Study part time
- Travel
- Volunteer

F-2 Dependents may not:

- Be employed
- Be full-time degree-seeking students at a postsecondary school or university

NOTE: Please be aware that F-2 status is only valid as long as the F-1 student maintains his/her status properly.
